HELD IN IOLTA ACCOUNT - PAGE 1 OF 7

1 of $5,000.00 of the $11,500.00 currently held by Counsel in Counsel's IOLTA on behalf of
2 the Debtor. This Motion is based on the fact that Debtor signed a mixed flat-fee/hourly fee
3 agreement with Counsel prior to the filing of this chapter 11 petition. The flat-fee portion of 4 the fee agreement was $5,000.00. A proposed order is attached.

7 I. Facts Supporting Withdrawal of the $5,000.00

8 On August 19, 2010, Debtor signed a fee agreement with Counsel that included the 9 following language:

10 Initial Payment For Services. This is a mixed flat-fee, hourly fee
11 agreement.

12 Client shall pay Counsel an initial payment of $5,000.00 for representation
13 in the above matter and it is the Client's intention to have Counsel file an 14 application to have the bankruptcy filing fee of $1,039.00 paid in 15 installments. The $5,000.00 does not include any amount to be applied to 16 the payment of the filing fee. Payment of the filing fee as required in any 17 installment agreement order remains the responsibility of the Client.
18 There is a minimum charge of $5,000.00 for any representation in this
19 matter. Fees for services by Counsel and/or other charges in excess of the 20 above amount shall be billed to Client at the rates indicated in the "Fees 21 for Services" section. If any fees owing are not paid to Counsel (for any 22 reason), Client is still liable for these payments. Counsel and staff will 23 track their hourly work and once $5000.00 of work/expenses has been 24 completed any service completed after this point will be billed to the 25 Client. At this time an additional deposit of $4,000.00 is immediately
26 required.

27 Note: the word "any" was underlined in the original fee agreement. (See 28 Declaration of O'Conner filed herewith in support of this Motion).

On August 19, 2010, debtor filed this action as a chapter 11 proceeding.

On September 8, 2010, Debtor delivered a cashier's check to Counsel in the amount of $6,000.00. That amount was $1,000.00 in excess of the flat-fee portion of the

1 fee agreement terms. Because of the excess $1,000.00, Counsel did not deposit the
2 $6,000.00 cashier's check into Counsel's main account but rather kept the cashier's
3 check in Counsel's office for a few months. (See Declaration of O'Conner).

4 On February 8, 2011, Counsel deposited the $6,000.00 into Counsel's IOLTA
5 account. (See Declaration of O'Conner).

7 On February 11, 2011, Counsel deposited a second cashier's check that was 8 delivered to Counsel by the Debtor into Counsel's IOLTA account on behalf of the 9 Debtor. (See Declaration of O'Conner).

10 On March 11, 2011, the initial Chapter 11 proceeding was converted to Chapter 7.

11
12 On March 11, 2011, minutes after the conversion of the case from Chapter 11 to 13 Chapter 7, O'Conner disclosed the existence of both of the cashier's checks directly to 14 both the Chapter 7 Trustee and his counsel, Denise Moewes. (See Declaration of 15 O'Conner).

16
17 On March 11, 2011, at that 'hallway meeting', the Trustee demanded that the funds
18 (both checks) remain in Counsel's IOLTA account. (See Declaration of O'Conner).

19 On April 29, 2011, at Debtor's 2nd 341 hearing, Debtor stated via Counsel that the 20 source of both of the above mentioned two cashier's checks were third parties and that
21 those funds did not come from Debtor's estate. (See Declaration of O'Conner).

22
23 On May 4, 2011, Counsel filed a motion to withdraw as counsel for the Debtor.

24 On May 27, 2011, Counsel filed his Rule 2016(b) Disclosure of Compensation.

25 On May 27, 2011, at the hearing on Counsel's motion to withdraw, Debtor once
26 again stated via his Counsel that the source of the two cashier's checks were third parties
27 and that the funds were not from Debtor's estate. (See Declaration of O'Conner).

1 On May 27, 2011, at an oral hearing, this court granted Counsel's motion to
2 withdraw.

3 As of the date of this motion, the funds still reside in Counsel's IOLTA account.
4 (See Declaration of O'Conner).

5 The legal fees for Counsel's work on Debtor's chapter 11 petition are $31,658.50;
6 far in excess of the $5,000.00 being sought in this motion. (See Declaration of
7 O'Conner).

13 Section 541(a)(1) provides:

14 The commencement of a case under section 301, 302, or 303 of this title
15 creates an estate. Such estate is comprised of all of the following property,
16 wherever located and by whomever held:

17 (1) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c)(2) of this section, all 18 legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the 19 commencement of the case.

20 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1).

21 Further, "funds paid to an attorney by a client for services "become property of the 22 estate only if, under applicable state law, the debtor has an interest in the [funds] at the time
23 of filing the bankruptcy case." In re GOCO Realty Fund I, 151 B.R. 241, 250

5 set forth in Baranowski, supra); See also Anne I. Seidel, Nonrefundable
6 Retainers and Advanced-fee Deposits, WASH. STATE BAR NEWSS
7 (September 1996). “Any fee paid to a lawyer that the client has agreed is
8 not refundable and is earned upon receipt for handling the client's case
9 shall not be deposited in the lawyer's trust account.” Wash. State Bar
10 Ass'n, supra (emphasis supplied).FN11”

11 Unfortunately, the Washington State Bar Association (WSBA) Ethics Opinion
12 being referred to in the above quote is WSBA Ethics Opinion 186 (1990) which was 13 withdrawn by the WSBA Board of Governors on December 9, 2005.

14 “A “classic” retainer is a sum of money paid by a client to secure an attorney's 15 availability over a given period of time and is considered earned by the attorney upon
16 receipt whether or not services are actually provided. Baranowski v. State Bar, 24
17 Cal.3d 153, 164 n. 4 (1979); SEC v. Interlink Data Network, 77 F.3d 1201, 1205 (9th 18 Cir.1996); In re Bigelow, 271 B.R. at 187. As these funds are the attorney's funds, and
19 because a client has no interest in such funds, the bankruptcy estate has no interest in a
20 “classic” retainer upon the filing of bankruptcy. In re McDonald, 114 B.R. 989, 999
21 (Bankr.N.D.Ill. 1990); In re C & P Auto Transport, Inc., 94 B.R. 682, 687
22 (Bankr.E.D.Cal. 1988).

23 The distinction between classic and advance fee retainer agreements is important
24 because if a retainer is not an asset of the estate, then it is not subject to the fee
25 application proceedings found in 11 U.S.C. § 330 and § 331, and Bankruptcy Rules
26 2016(a) and 2002(a)(7). In re James Contracting Group, Inc., 120 B.R. 868, 871,

1 Bkrtcy.N.D.Ohio,1990 citing In re McDonald Bros. Const., Inc., 114 B.R. 989
2 (Bankr.N.D.Ill. 1990).

3 Counsel believes that $5,000.00 of the $6,000.00 cashier's check is a "classic"
4 retainer and as such moves the court for an order authorizing the transfer of $5,000.00 of 5 the IOLTA funds to Counsel's main account.

7 Counsel draws the court's attention to the sentence in the fee agreement that reads:
8 "There is a minimum charge of $5,000.00 for any representation in this matter." Debtor
9 completed a master's degree in business from the University of Pennsylvania in 2005.
10 Debtor knew what he was signing and that $5,000.00 of whatever funds were received by
11 Counsel would be earned upon receipt or a 'classic retainer.'

13 Counsel concedes, as it must, that the $6,000.00 cashier's check was paid to 14 Counsel post-petition. However, as Debtor has stated several times that the funds came 15 as a gift from a third party, those funds did not become part of Debtor's estate. As stated
16 above in McDonald and C & P Auto Transport, Inc., funds that are not assets of the estate
17 are not subject to the fee application proceedings found in 11 U.S.C. § 330 and § 331,
18 and Bankruptcy Rules 2016(a) and 2002(a)(7).

20 Accordingly, as the fee agreement signed by the Debtor clearly spells out that the 21 fee agreement was a "a mixed flat-fee, hourly fee agreement" and that $5,000.00 of the 22 funds received by Counsel were due for "any" representation, the $5,000.00 should be
23 viewed as earned upon receipt and Counsel should be allowed to transfer $5,000.00 to 24 Counsel's main account.

III. This Request Is Timely.

Failure to request appointment or fees in a bankruptcy matter that is subsequently dismissed does not necessarily bar the attorney from later seeking fees in a separate proceeding. See In re Elias, 215 B.R. 600, 603-04 (9th Cir.BAP, Nev., 1997), aff'd, 188 F.3d 1160 (9th Cir.1999).

In this instance, while the Court has already granted Counsel's motion to withdraw as counsel for Debtor at an oral hearing on May 27, 2010, Counsel now seeks court approval of the flat fee section of it's fee agreement with the Debtor.

Accordingly, and for the above reasons, the court should allow Counsel to transfer $5,000.00 of the fund's held in Counsel's IOLTA account for Debtor to Counsel's main account.
